DISCUSSION:

Councilman Gerstner stated that to try to avoid this we did ask the Union to take a freeze and they would not bring that to their members for a vote after being told by some of the DPW workers that they were willing to take a freeze. The Union was offered that chance and they declined that chance. They declined to bring it to their members for a vote.

This is the only thing that we could do. We tried to give them a way out and they declined that.

Supervisor Sweeton – That is true, we did try everything to avoid these eliminations.

Councilman Gerstner – I think it should be in the minutes that you spoke to them and they declined to bring it to their membership for a vote. They were never given a chance by the Union.
